2022-2023

Paths of Old - Ancient Paths

Jeremiah 6:16; 18:15; Acts 15:21

“Thus said יהוה (Yahweh), “Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where the good way is, and walk in it; and find rest for yourselves...”
(Jeremiah 6:16)

“But My people have forgotten Me, they have burned incense to what is false, and they have stumbled from their ways, from the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths and not on a highway.” (Jeremiah 18:15)

“For from ancient generations Mosheh has, in every city, those proclaiming him – being read in the congregations every Sabbath.” (Acts 15:21)

New Moon - Rosh Chodesh

“He made the moon for seasons...”

Psalm 104:19

Each Biblical month begins on a New Moon known in Hebrew as Rosh Chodesh. The head of the Biblical New Year known as Rosh Hashanah which begins on the first of Abib/Nisan according to Exodus 12:1-2.

Projected New Moon Sightings

All projected New Moon sightings noted throughout this Torah Reading Cycle are based on two sources. There are times when the New Moon comes early or later than what is noted in this Torah Reading Cycle. Please be aware that the New Moon sighting dates are not perfect and one should be on the watch from one New Moon/month to the next. A Hebrew month can be no less than 29 days but no more than 30 days long. So, please keep track from one New Moon/month to the next how many days have gone by so you will know roughly when the next New Moon/month should arrive. I use as one of my sources for finding the dates for the sighting of the New Moon/month from <http://www.moonconnection.com/>.

As I receive monthly New Moon reports from the land of Israel, I notify all subscribers to <https://truenews4u.com/> via email of the sighted New Moon report. So, if you are interested in receiving Newsletter and New Moon notifications, I encourage you to go to the website and subscribe to receive the newsletter and New Moon email notifications.

Since the New Moon for Yom Teruah starts at sunset on September 16th after the weekly Sabbath, it was decided by others to use these Scripture readings for this Sabbath. The New Moon for the 7th Hebrew month of Tishri will be at sunset on September 16th after the weekly Sabbath. It is the 30th day from the last sighted New Moon which was on August 17th at sunset. By default, a Hebrew month cannot be more than 30 days. The moon on the September 15th is a dark (conjunction) moon. This is why the official sighted New Moon starts at sunset on September 16th. | | | |

| 10/08/2023 In the 10 th solar month of the Hebrew 7 th month— Tishri. | Shemini- Atzeret שמיני עצרת The Eight Day High Holy Day No Work | Deuteronomy 14:22—16:17; Numbers 29:35- 40 (Chumash: Numbers 29:35— 30:1) | 1 Kings 8:54-66; Psalm 134—135; Jeremiah 2:13— 17:13; Zechariah 14:1- 21 | Matthew 6:1-34; John 7:1—8:11; Revelation 21:1—22:21 |

NOTE: The celebration of Shemini-Atzeret and Simhat Torah are celebrated together in the Land of Israel on the same day. If you are not in the Land of Israel these two celebrations are two separate days. Thus, Sukkot celebration is nine days outside the Land of Israel.

The Torah (Genesis through Deuteronomy) is the foundation of all Scripture. With this being the case, an inadequate or erroneous understanding of the Torah makes it much more challenging to come to a proper understanding of the rest of the Hebrew Scriptures, not to mention the Messianic Scriptures known as the “New Testament” which is based upon the Torah.

During the time when Yeshua (Jesus) was here, there were two different Torah reading cycles. One cycle was accomplished in a one-year cycle of which this Torah Reading Cycle is based upon. The other reading cycle was based on a three-year cycle. The most popular Torah Reading Cycle is the one-year cycle.

Torah Reading Forbidden

During the reign of Antiochus Epiphanies who ruled from 175-164 BCE, the Jewish people were forbidden to read the Torah or to circumcise their children. Anyone who was caught doing so was put to death. Many were martyred because they circumcised their male children in obedience to YHWH’s Command (Genesis 17:10-14 and Leviticus 12:3). The Jewish people managed to be creative and they were able to get around Antiochus Epiphanies edict to not read the Torah. They accomplished this by setting up a cycle of readings based on the Nevi'im (The Prophets) which would remind them in some way of the Torah portion that was normally read that particular Sabbath. The connection in the Nevi'im (The Prophets) might refer them to a story found in the Torah. This connection could be as little as a single word. After reading this Torah substitute, one of the men would say; “Oh, that reminds me of the story about...” and off they would go into a discussion about that week’s Torah portion without having broken the law forced upon the Jewish people by Antiochus Epiphanies. These portions from the Nevi'im (The Prophets) became known as the Haftarah which means “other readings.”

The introduction of public reading of the Torah by Ezra the Scribe after the return of the Judean exiles is described in Nehemiah Chapter 8. Prior to Ezra, the mitzvah of Torah reading was based on the Biblical commandment of Hakhel (Deuteronomy 31:10–13), by which once every 7 years the entire people were to be gathered, “men, women and children,” (Deuteronomy 31:12) and hear much of Deuteronomy, the final volume of the Torah/Pentateuch, read to them. Traditionally, the mitzvah of gathering the people and reading them the Torah under Hakhel was to be performed by the King. Under Ezra, the Torah reading became more frequent and the congregation themselves substituted for the King's role. Ezra is traditionally credited with initiating the modern custom of reading thrice weekly in the synagogue. This reading is an obligation incumbent on the congregation, not an individual, and it did not replace the Hakhel reading by the king. The reading of the Torah/Law in the synagogue can be traced to at least about the 2nd century BCE, when the grandson of Sirach refers to it in his preface as an Egyptian practice.

This Torah Cycle has been adjusted to complete the Torah, Haftarah and Brit Chadashah readings before Sukkot.

This Annual Torah Cycle came from Test All Things.

Important Message to the Reader:

I encourage the reader to read all of the suggested Scripture references for each Sabbath in advance and make any notations/comments you want to share with others or questions you want to address with the group you are assembling with. When the reader assembles with others to read the suggested readings, by no means is it imperative to read all the suggested Scriptures for that weekly Sabbath in a group setting. It is far better to have an in-depth discussion on a few Scriptures than to read everything that is being presented on a specific date. The beauty of studying the Scriptures year after year is that each year everyone is able to uncover new and deeper truths from what was understood the previous year.

I hope this Annual Torah Cycle Reading Schedule will bless each and every one of you.

May our Loving Heavenly Father YHWH (Yahweh) guide each of you into His Truths from His Absolute Written Word.

Shalom,
Eddie Rogers, Minister, D.D.
